

The Class of 2020 was asked to give their best advice to the member of the Class of 2024 to help them be successful in high school. Here are their responses.

Advice

Get involved in one or more extracurricular activity.

Always get homework completed and turned in.

Don't procrastinate and get everything done on time.

Don't be afraid to ask questions or for extra help before, during, or after class.

Respect yourself and others.

Grades do matter; make sure to pass everything.

Always give your best effort!

Enjoy current friends, but don't hesitate to make new ones, too.

Don't throw away your freshman year by being lazy or complacent; make sure to give yourself the best chance to succeed.

Study for all of your classes.

Stay organized: write down assignments, plan daily activities, manage time, etc.

Avoid needless drama - yours and other people's; always make good decisions.

Be prepared for class each day with all necessary materials; remember to charge your Chromebook before school each day.

Challenge yourself; step out of your comfort zone and try new things.

Be at school and in class on time every day.

Expect changes and always keep an open mind.
